

Bulk Customization of Taiwan Distribution Boxes

AI Overview

Taiwan offers a robust selection of manufacturers capable of producing high-quality, fully customized distribution boxes in bulk, with options for materials, printing, and specialized designs. Key Manufacturers and Capabilities

Jiaxin Box specializes in custom corrugated boxes with decades of packaging expertise. They provide end-to-end services including design consultation, material selection, printing, production, and delivery. Their facilities are equipped with high-speed corrugated board lines, multi-color flexographic presses, automated die-cutters, and laminators, ensuring consistent quality for bulk orders. They cater to industries such as food, electronics, logistics, agriculture, and e-commerce, and maintain ISO-certified quality management systems.

Asia Print Packaging offers fully customized folding cartons, litho-laminated corrugated boxes, and point-of-sale displays. They provide extensive finishing options such as embossing, debossing, UV and aqueous coatings, hot and cold foil stamping, and custom inserts. Their services include printing, converting, assembly, warehousing, and logistics, making them suitable for large-scale distribution box production.

Santapress produces a wide range of paper and plastic packaging boxes, including kraft, corrugated, and PET options. They offer vibrant CMYK offset printing and metallic foil finishes, suitable for high-value or branded products. Their facilities integrate advanced machinery from Germany, Japan, and Taiwan, supporting bulk customization with high precision.

UPackaging focuses on litho corrugated boxes designed for shipping and retail needs. They emphasize durability against shock, vibration, compression, and moisture, while providing environmentally friendly materials compliant with Taiwan's plastic ban. Their extensive printing and packaging equipment allows for cost-effective bulk productio...
