

Mozambique Spectrometer Manufacturer

AI Overview

Laboid International and Aditya Systems are among the leading spectrometer manufacturers and suppliers in Mozambique, offering a range of high-quality analytical instruments. Local Manufacturers and Suppliers Laboid International is a prominent manufacturer and supplier of spectrophotometers and other laboratory instruments in Mozambique. Established in 2018, they provide precision instruments for scientific research, industrial applications, and clinical diagnostics. Their product range includes spectrophotometers, laboratory centrifuges, microscopes, shakers, mixers, and more. Laboid emphasizes accuracy, durability, and user-friendly design, and they also offer export services for international clients. Aditya Systems, operating under the brand LADA, is recognized as a trusted spectrometer manufacturer in Mozambique. They provide customizable spectrometer solutions using high-grade materials and advanced technology. Their offerings include reliable spectrometers suitable for research and industrial applications, with a focus on competitive pricing, on-time delivery, and customer support. International Brands Available in Mozambique GBC Scientific Equipment is an international manufacturer that supplies advanced spectrometers, including UV-Visible spectrophotometers, ICP-TOFMS, ICP-OES, and AAS systems. GBC instruments are known for high resolution, sensitivity, and multi-material analysis capabilities, making them suitable for demanding laboratory applications. Sensegood Instruments specializes in color spectrophotometers, colorimeters, and whiteness meters, offering affordable solutions for color measurement and CIE Lab or HunterLab analysis. Key Considerations When selecting a spectrometer manufacturer in Mozambique, consider: Type of spectrometer needed (UV-Visible, ICP, color measurement, etc.) Precision and reliability of instruments for your application Availability of local support and maintenance Export and delivery options if international shipping is req...
